

ULTIMATE GOAL

Youth needs are met by developmentally appropriate services

Youth feel capable, loveable and worthy

Youth are valued and understood

Youth are prepared, connected and contributing

LONG-TERM OUTCOMES

Youth willingly access support

Youth are fulfilled and successful

Youth have life-long connections in supportive communities

Youth lead each other and the community

Co-locate services and peer outreach in community

Youth are coached to take on new opportunities

Rigorous follow-up with youth and networks creates community dialogue

Youth leaders raise up next generation

MID-TERM OUTCOMES

More accessible resources available

A culture is created that supports youths' individual needs

Changed perception of challenges and failures as learning opportunities

Clear expectations for youth leaders

Youth advocate for policy change, partnerships expand based on needs data

Youth and adults create a culture with its own rituals and language

Partners agree to practices tolerant of failure in pursuit of learning

Youth participate in public performances and training, while receiving professional coaching

SHORT-TERM OUTCOMES

Small, youth-friendly, network is formed

Youth experience a safe place

Youth can identify supportive adults, adults become more tolerant of youth failure and learning

Youth are seen as leaders

Youth coach providers

Youth co-create community center

Youth ask adults for help, adults carefully and willingly listen

Youth step into leadership, adults make space for youth

STRATEGIES

